

The Training House provides a wide range of cost effective, nationally recognised training courses that have been designed to provide practical skills and competencies for those looking for meaningful careers and to support professional development. We offer flexible course modes for both accredited and non accredited training to suit individual needs, and can also provide customised, in-house training across Queensland, New South Wales and the ACT, as well as through distance learning.

INDUSTRY SPECIALISTS

The Training House is a division of House With No Steps, one of Australia's leading Disability service providers, offering employment, education, training and community support services to over 2000 people with a disability each week. Since 1962 the House With No Steps has supported children and adults with an intellectual, physical, sensory or psychiatric disability to live, learn, work and connect in the community. HWNS also operates 25 varied commercial businesses.

This industry background enables The Training House to offer real insight, particularly to those in the Human Services sector, and ensure that courses are both relevant and practical. Our experience also enables us to readily tailor and deliver training material that responds effectively to the training needs of people with disabilities and those who support them.
